HIGH TIDE AT GETTYSBURG.

(By an Ex-Confederate Soldier.) -July 3, 1863.-

cloud possessed the hollow field. The gathering battle's smoky shield Athwart the gloom the lightning flashed, And through the cloud some horsemen dashed, And from the heights the thunder pealed.

Then at the brief command of Lee, Moved out that matchless infantry, With Pickett leading grandly down, To rush against the roaring crown Of those dread heights of destiny.

A cry arose, the tumult runs-The voice that rang through Shiloh's woods And Chickamauga's solitudes, The flerce South cheering on her sons!

The British squares at Waterloo!

A thousand fell where Kemper led; A thousand died where Garnett bled; In blinding flame and strangling smoke The remnant through the batteries broke

And crossed the works with Armistend. 'Once more in Glory's van with me!" Virginia cried to Tennessee: 'We two together, come what may,

Brave Tennessee! In reckless way Virginia heard her comrade say: "Close round this rent and riddled rag!" What time she set her battle flag Amid the guns of Doubleday.

Were shriveled at the cannon's mouth,

In vain the Tennesseean set His breast against the bayonet. In vain Virginia charged and raged, A tigress in her wrath uncaged

Above the bayonets, mixed and crossed, Men saw a gray, gigantic ghost Receding throug the battle cloud, And heard across the tempest loud The death cry of a nation lost. The brave went down. Without disgrace

They leaped to ruin's red embrace: They only heard fame's thunders wake, And saw the dazzling sunburst break In smiles on glory's bloody face. They fell, who lifted up a hand And bade the sun in heaven to stand.

They stood, who saw the future come On through the fight's delirium. They smote and stood, who held the hope Of nations on that slippery slope Amid the cheers of Christendom.

God lives! He forged the iron will That clutched and held that trembling hill. God lives and reigns; He built and lent The heights for freedom's battlement, Where floats her flag in triumph still Fold up the banners! Smelt the guns! Love rules! Her gentle purpose runs. A mighty mother turns in tears The pages of her battle years, Lamenting all her fallen sons!

NEW TYPES MEETING EXPECTA-TIONS AS TO POWER AND SPEED.

New No. 241 Mass. ave., 223 N. Del. st. Tel. 840. Alliance Between the Santa Fe and the Pennsylvania Still Thought Likely-Railway Notes.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has just placed in service a locomotive that is exceeding expectations in its power and speed. One of these engines last week ninety miles in 122 minutes. This engine eighty-inch driving wheels, cylinders 201/2x extended to cover both lines. 26 inches and boiler pressure of 210 pounds. occasion this engine developed a speed of to Johnstown, seventy-eight miles, most of the way up grade, in 109 minutes. There are now several of these engines in process of construction and it will probably be adopted as a standard for not only the this class are to be tested on the Panhan-Chicago. Meantime the New York Central financed by J. P. Morgan & Co. is putting in service twenty locomotives, the largest passenger engines in the world, and on a test they are expected to outdo the famous 999, which hauls the Empire State express. The driving wheels are seventy-nine inches in diameter. The weight of the engine alone is eighty-eight tons, and by the turn of a lever in the the traction wheels to the driving wheels. gines now building for the Big Four road a great saving of time and trouble for pasirons, pictures, foiding beds, wardrobes, casles, will equal in every respect either of those sengers. mantel cabinets, radiators, bathtubs and fixtures, | described above. The Big Four was the William Garstang, superintendent of motive power, assisted by his mechanical enorse each; elevator pump. Duplex Dean; two gineer. So satisfactory were the engines not water pumps, 5x4, Dean; two cold water | that Mr. Garstang decided to enlarge on umps. No. 6. At first it was lights, chandeliers, bar and billiard feared that the engine would not be a sucfeared that the engine would not be a success, but after sixty days' use they are developing a speed and power which is a surprise to superintendents of motive power, handling trains of twelve cars with as much ease as one of the company's eightwheel lighter engines handled three or four cars. Those to be received next month are expected to be an improvement on those in use. They will be a little heavier and resemble more in appearance and construction what are known as the late Atlantic ### type of locomotive. Personal, Local and General Notes.

In June there were handled on the Big Four system 587,892 passengers. James Buckley, general Eastern agent of the Erie lines, is now en route to Europe, where he will rest for two months. J. Q. Van Winkle, general superintendent of the Big Four lines, is in East St. Louis adjusting the wage question with freight handlers at that point. Arthur Wells, general manager of the Santa Fe lines west of Albuquerque, who is on an Eastern trip, was yesterday in the city en route to Chicago. J. R. Cavanaugh, car servie superintendent of the Big Four lines, left last evening for Petoskey, with his family. Mr. Cavanaugh will return next week. C. H. Newton, for years agent of the Wabash lines at Toledo, who a few weeks ago went to California quite ill, returned yesterday much improved in health. C. C. Pierce, agent of the Merchants Dispatch at this point, now in Colorado, writes that his health is improving and he will remain West at least two months.

George Graves, superintendent of the Indiana, Decatur & Western, is arrang-ing his affairs to leave the latter part of the week for Atlantic City, to be absent two weeks. M. E. Ingalls, president of the Big Four, now at Hot Springs, W. Va., will return to Cincinnati for a day, July 8, before settling down for the summer months at Hot Springs with his family. Negotiations are pending between traffic officials of the Iowa Central, the Minneapolts & St. Louis and the Wabash to form a St. Louis fast freight line, via Albert Lea and Albion, from Iowa points. Travel over the Cleveland division of the Big Four is so heavy that the Knickerbocker and Rainbow Special not only haul an extra sleeping car, but two extra day coaches were yesterday put on. The biennial examination of Big Four employes in all lines of the operating department for color, sight and hearing was commenced yesterday. It will require day's session: three weeks to complete the work.

In June there were loaded and unloaded at the local freight depots of the Big Four at Indianapolis 7,816 cars, an increase over June, 1900, of 582 cars, and the business on the bulk tracks showed even a larger gain. Joseph Ramsey, president of the Wabash lines, was himself as soon as possible at the scene of the wreck at Cass last week so that he might personally note the conditions and ascertain to a certainty the cause of the accident.

James E. Lockwood, who for twenty-six Massachusetts Mutual Life years had been keneral passenger agent of the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis road, retired on July 1. He was presented by his late associates with a loving cup and given a banquet.

Saxby's 'Travelers' Magazine says the passenger conductor is a much abused individual. He is regarded as the target for all sorts of criticism; the praise he gets comes only at intervals, and his deserts are far above those he receives. In spite of all denials, many well-informed Union Central Life Insurrailroad people continue strong in their belief that the Pennsylvania will before long control the Santa Fe. This belief is based on the assumption that main control will become necessary to the former. Col. William Shaw, representing the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, Mr. Mordaugh, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, and

Mr. Clifford, the Union Pacific, were in the city yesterday. They report a large movement of tourists to the Northwest. William Garstang, superintendent of motive power of the Big Four lines, was yesterday notified by the Schenectady locomotive works that they to-day would ship Wm. F. Nagelson ...... 1,000 two of the four large Atlantic type of locomotives contracted for ninety days ago. William Bliss will retain the presidency of the Boston & Albany. His only duty will be to collect from the New York Central road, annually, the amount stipulated for

The Pennsylvania Company manufactures its own ice, supplying its shops and stations with an abundance of the article, which is highly appreciated by the men employed in the shops. A car is set daily at such points as Altoona, and if there is any ice left at the close of the day, as there usually is, employes who live near the shops or stations are permitted to take it home with them if they desire to.

STATE SCHOOL FUNDS.

The June Apportionment Made by State Superintendent.

The June apportionment of state school funds, upon which Superintendent of Public Instruction Jones has been working for several days past, was completed yesterday. The amount realized for school purposes from all the counties was $1,131,950.34. Of this $1,113,695.52 was apportioned, leaving in the treasury a balance of $33,550.70. The apportionment per capita was $1.47. Marion county, as usual, paid for school purposes more than it received back. It paid in $117,943.38 and received the apportionment $70,296.87. The wealthier and more thickly populated counties, as a rule, paid in more than they received back in the apportionment. Other countles, as, for example, Brown, received more than they paid. Brown was apportioned $9,600.03 after having paid in $8,295.84.

cost $2,500. Fished from the Canal.

Dudley Griffin, colored, residing at 1015 Fayette street, attempted last night to drown himself in the canal at Tenth street. Patrolmen Ward and Cousins heard him in the water and shoved out a long pole, which the colored man eagerly grasped and was pulled ashore. He said something about trouble with a "housewife" in giving the cause for his wish to kill himself
